

As a citizen of the United States I strongly protest the taking of amateur frequencies around 433 MHz and awarding it to SAVI.

Doing this just rewards companies that believe in asking for forgiveness after they have committed the act rather than permission before hand like SAVI has done in Europe and is planning to do in the US.

It also reduces the opportunities for Ham radio which is being evicted from frequencies by narrow commercial interests.